President and Mrs. Wilson Attend Keith Show; Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont Are Dinner Hosts; The Congressional Club Celebrates Birthday

Other News of Society at the Capital

The President and Mrs. Wilson occu-pled a box at Keith's last evening. They ere accompanied by Miss Bolling.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont were hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Worthy and Mr. Morgan Worthy, of Springfield, Mass., who are motoring, arrived at Washington yesterday and are stopping

The Congressional Club celebrated its seventh birthday anniversary yesterday morning with a musical followed by a buffet luncheon. The clubhouse was charmingly decorated with quantities of spring flowers and graceful sprays of fruit blossoms. Miss Casselman, pianist, and Miss Katherine Taylor, who sans, gave a delightful program. Following the luncheon there were several informal addresses with Mrs. Atlee Pomerene, president of the club, and Mrs. William N. Harr as the principal speakers.

The second of the series of informal dances which have been arranged for Monday evenings during the spring, was given at the club last evening. The Congressional Club celebrated its

Mrs. Archibald Gracle entertained informally at luncheon at the Shoreham Miss Gladys Sullivan, who has been the Preparations are being hurried forward in the gardens of the historic Octroon house in New York avenue and Eighteehth street for the fair in aid of British wound the simplicity of ed soldiers. The fair will open next Mon-day and will continue for four days. In the afternoons tea will be served, which, it is hoped, will be a welcome addition to the attractions of the horse show, which will be in progress a short distance off. In the evenings there will be dancing upon a specially prepared platform in the garden and vaudeville and other perform garden and vaudeville and other performances in a theater which is also being extemporized in the garden.

The program for the opening night includes a pageant of the nations like that held at Newport last summer. Among those appearing will be Miss Nona McAdoo as Japan, Miss Margaret Perin as Ruesla, who appeared in the same role at Newport. Miss Ethel Harriman as Britsen of the same role at Newport. Newport: Miss Ethel Harriman as Brit-

Newport: Miss Ethel Harriman as Brit-tania, and Countess Gizycka as France. On Tuesday night there will be a danc-ing competition open to all-comers and an exhibition of dancing by professionals, as well as vaudeville. On Wednesday night the "Preparedness" movement will be the feature and on Thursday night, like Tues-day night dancing will rule supreme. day night, dancing will rule supreme.

One of the features of the afternoons will be a number of booths representing the British Colonies and Dominions in which appropriate things will be sold by society matrons and girls.

society matrons and girls.

Tickets of admmission will be 50 cents in the afternoon and 22 in the evening, including vaudeville and dancing. Reservation of tea tables surrounding the dance vation of tea tables surrounding the dancing platform, and a limited number of tables, for which the demand, especially on the first night, is already great, on the terrace before the vaudeville stage, in the evening, may be secured by request and check to the treasurer, Mr. Walter Bruce Howe, 77 Fourteenth street (telephone Main 4290). Tickets of admission may be secured at the entrance.

The fair is being got up by the follow-may be secured at the entrance.

The fair is being got up by the following committee of prominent Washingtonians: Mrs. William Corcoran Eustis, Mrs.

J. Borden Harriman, Mrs. George Howard, Miss Ernst, Mr. F. H. Brooke, Mr. William Corcoran Eustis, Mr. George William Corcoran Eustis, Mr. George Howard, Mr. Basil Miles, and Mr. Walter

Mrs. L. Rogers McAwley, of Lake Forest, Ill., is in Washington for a stay at a theater party yesterday afternoon in honor of Mies Hanna Willard Taylor, whose marriage to Mr. Charles Clay Bayly will take place next Monday evening. Miss Jones entertained the party at tea at her residence in P street, after the matinee. The guests were Miss Taylor's sister, Mrs. Reid Hunt: Mrs. William Henry Holcombe. Miss Olive Cugle, Miss Antoinette Ray, Miss May Radford, Mrs. Joseph Clay Habersham Colquitt, Mrs. John Harrison Knapp, Mrs. Freeman Day, Mrs. Frances Washington, Miss Borothy Taylor, Miss Helen McCumber, Miss May Power Miss Katherine Hol. will take place next Monday evening. May Power, Miss Katherine Hol-ok, Miss Ethel Norris and Miss Marle ary. Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. Kpapp presided at the tea table, which was adorned with yellow roses.

Mrs. Frances S. Bangs, Miss Mary W. Jeanette B. Bangs have arrived from their home in New York, and are at soft-shaded electric lamps and candela-

Q-BAN DARKENS

Harmless-No Dye.

By applying Q-Ban Hair Color Rettorer, like a shampoo, to your hair and kalp, all your gray, streaked with gray. rematurely gray or faded, dry or harsh hair quickly turns to an even, beautiful lark shade, so every strand of your hair, whether gray or not, becomes glossy, luffy, justrous, soft, thick, with that realthy hair—just as you like to have four hair appear—fascinating and abundant, without even a trace of gray showns. only natural, evenly dark, lovely tair. Q-Ban is absolutely harmless; no lye, ready to use. Only 50c for a big bottle at Riker-Heageman Drug Store 100. ottle at Riker-Hegeman Drug Store, 1006 street northwest, Washington, D. C. Out-of-town folks supplied by mail.—

Flame-colored Dancing Frock.

to the dining-room. The table was decorated with a large centerplece of spring flowers. Following the reception the receiving party were entertained at a buffet sup-per and a musical. Those assisting at the musical were Mrs. Metcalf, Miss Metcalf and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patterson.

begins there on Wednesday.

Mrs. Frank P. Leetch will be at home, for the last time this season, on Thursday, May 4.

Mrs. Charles Downer Hazen entertained at luncheon yesterday at her apartment in the Connecticut, entertaining in compliment to Mrs. Robert Lansing and her guests. Mrs. Valentine and Mrs. Stebbins, of Watertown, N. Y. The table was decorated with Ophelia roses.

Miss Nancy Gordon Jones was hostess at a theater party yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Hanna Willard Taylor, lar girls of her season. She is a member of the Sewing Circle of her debutante year. Her sisters are Miss Ella Lyman and Miss Susan Lyman, both of whom are older, and a younger sister, Miss Julia Lyman, who will not come out until a year from next winter. Mr. Arthur T. Lyman, second, a senior at Harvard, is a brother. Mr. Parson is also in his senior year at Harvard. He piayed on the university football teams of 1914-15 and has rowed on the varsity crew for two years. He is a member of the Fly, Iroquois and Hasty Pudding Clubs. His mother, Mrs. William E. Parson, is now living in Cambridge.

Miss Ellen A Vistor of Ellen and the carefully it is well to rinse the vessure of the varies of the vessure of the piayed on the university football teams of 1914-15 and has rowed on the varsity crew for two years. He is a member of the Fly, Iroquois and Hasty Pudding Clubs. His mother, Mrs. William E. Parson, is now living in Cambridge.

Miss Ellen A. Vinton, of 2508 Gliffboune place will be at home informally tomor-row afternoon from 3 to 6, and will have with her two cousins from Massachu-setts. Miss Georgianna Vinton, and Miss

The dust laden winds of spring

a hat to match. There were no brides-maids. Lieut. Anderson was attended by Lieut. Commander R. W. Vincent, Lieut. Hamilton Roberts and Lieut. Leigh Noyes, all of the navy.

After a wedding trip Lieut, and Mrs. Anderson will go to Philadelphia, where they will make their home for Everybody Uses It—So Handy. the present. Lieut Anderson is chief engineer of the U. S. S. Carolina, which is now detailed to the Philadelphia navy yard.

> Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bard of Hueneme, Calif., who were recently married and are making a tour of the East, arrived in Washington yesterday and are at the willard. Other arrivals of yesterday in-clude Mrs. Henry B. Joy, of Detroit; Miss Elizabeth Saltonstall, of Chestunt Hill, Mass.; Miss Esther Hosmer, of Boston; Miss Grace Lockwood, of Boston; Miss Nancy Barton, of Worcester; Mrs. J. Mc-Gregor Adams, of Chicago and Thomas-ville, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. Hickox, of Cleveland, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Webber, of Minneapolis

The sound of the heavy guns in the hattle of Verdun was undoubtedly the loudest man-made noise that the world has ever known. It was heard at Ziegenhain, 188 miles away, even indoors with the windows shut.

Word has been received here of the death on April 39, at Morrisville, N. J., of Theodore Ingalls, formerly of this city, who served as general superintendent of railway mail in the Postoffice Department from April, 1911, until June, 1818.

HOUSEWIVES DAILY ECONOMY CALENDAR

By FRANCES MARSHALL

Simple Beauty Aids. Mrs. T. Harrison Garrett, Mrs. J.
Alfred Merritt and Mrs. William Read, of Baltimore, have arrived in Washington and are at the Shoreham preparatory for the meeting of the Colonial Dames which begins there on Wednesder freshing. Alcohol or brandy, diluted with rosewater and rubbed on the face, will leave a pretty color that will last for hours. An alcoholic toilet water which is both beautifying and in-perfectly dry. After washing them carefully it is well to rinse the vessels with a solution of boric acid, and when they have dried rinse them again

The dust laden winds of spring cause considerable injury to the deli-

bert Patierson, Mrs. Clarence
bert Patierson, Mrs. Clarence stall, Mirs Alice Griffith, Miss Mary ittle. Miss Dorothy Denham, Miss Mary oulse Slack and Mrs. Edwin Almon, wife
f Representative Almon.

The drawing-rooms were lighted with coft-shaded electric lamps and candelawith spring flowers and fruit bloswith spring flowers and fruit blossoms against a background of palms
The bride, who was
The bride, who was
The bride, who was
The prince was charmingly decorated with spring flowers and fruit blosthroat, nose and hair, for a salt rub of the scalp is an excellent encouragement to the growth and beauty of the hair.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARY FRIDAY.

40,000 Votes Expected to Be Polled for Twelve Candidates.

Delegates from the District to the National Republican convention at Chicago next June will be elected at a primary to be held here on Friday. Two delegates and two alternates will be chosen. Twelve candidates are in the field. It is expected that fully 40,000 votes will Persons will not be required to register in advance of voting. Male resi-dents of the District who are twenty-one years of age and older will be permitted to vote after giving name and address at the polling piace. There will be no fees, assessments, or taxes levied against voters. Persons may vote remardless of former political affiliation and irrespective of how they voted in the primaries held here four years ago.

Theodore Ingalls Dead.

TOMORROW'S MENU.

Look at your corn in May and you will come weeping away.

Look at the same in June, and you will will come home in another tune."

—OLD PROVERB.

> BREAKFAST. Stewed Rhubarb. Cereal and Cream. Beef Hash. Rolls. Coffee.

LUNCHEON OR SUPPER

DINNER.

Beef hash-Stew the bones of cooked beef in a little water with an onion, some salt and pepper, and a little savory herbs; when the goodness is all out of the bones, thicken the gravy with a tea-spoonful of cornstarch, and if it is not very strong put in a bit of butter, then put in the slices of meat. Warm but do not boil. Serve with toasted bread.

Tapioca pudding-Soak three tablespoor rapioca pudding—Soak three tablespoon-fuls of taploca in water over night. Add a quart of milk, a small piece of butter, sait and let come to the boiling point. Add the yolks of three eggs, well beaten with one cupful of sugar, and cook over-hot water until thick. Flavor to taste. Pour into a pudding dish and when cold cover with the whites of the eggs, beaten stiff and sweetend stiff and sweetened.

Pineapple ice cream—Scald a quart of very rich milk or cream and add two tablespoonfuls of sugar. When cold add the pulp and juice of half a pineapple and the juice of half a lemon. Freeze.

Old Man Dislikes Autos.

San Rafael, Cal., May 1.—"I have no use for these new-fangled horseless caruse for these new-fangled norselves riages, so I'll just walk," decided 80-yearold Andrew Howe when invited by County Physician J. S. Kuser to ride in an automobile. Under the burden of his fourscore years and a heavy suitcase Howe walked the six miles from the county hospital to San Rafael, after his recovery from illness.

The enail has a long tongue which is colled so that it uses only a part at one time. The tongue is covered with tiny

After-Easter Suit Sale

Sale Begins This Morning.

A straight-out reduction of 25 per cent off the original prices of our entire stock of High-grade Spring Suits, including reproductions of foreign models and many of Hickson reproduc-

Will Offer Special Today 57 Silk Afternoon Gowns $15.00

Taken from our regular stock. Heretofore priced at $35

After-Easter Millinery Sale In order to make room for our Summer Hats, which are arriving daily, we will offer many smart models at $5.00, $7.50 and $10.00 Heretofore Priced at $10, $15 and $18.50.

_1210 F Street_

BRAVERY AND BRAVADO.

Copyright, 1916, by The McClure Newspaper Syndicate. Entered at Stationers Hall, London. All rights reserved, including rights of translation. Publi-cation of this article in whole or in part is expressly prohibited except by special arrangement with The McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

F COURSE there are very few. How many times we hear people F COURSE there are very tew pictures we take where we are not subject to dangers besetting us on all sides, which we face ting us on all sides, which we face the stage of the stage unless it is for the stage un like brave little soldiers going into battle. These are the dangers of working in the snow, laboring for Think of the mother who waits home hours in the hot sun, sitting in draughts and having to do scenes in the water when we are suffering from colds. I have taken high dives into icy streams when I have been so the colds. Think of the mother who waits home for you every night—just think how her heart would ache if they brought you home on a stretcher or had to tell her you were hurt and would perhaps be an invalid or a cripple the rest of your life! rocky sides of precipices, almost clinging to projecting branches with my teeth!

Skating on thin ice is so much fun is at present playing in "T because there is danger attached to it," one silly young girl said at the studio the other afternoon. "It is just that uncertainty which stimulates Often I have ridden horses which me and adds to my pleasure." Often I have ridden horses wonder how much stimulus she frisked around as if they had long wonder how much stimulus she thinks it would be if the ice should danced to the vibrant strains of the break and suddenly she should find steam calliope in the wake of a cir- herself precipitated into chilled wacus, but I swallowed my fears and ter, which might result in serious tried to act like Buffalo Bill at the illness—if not death? head of a band of cowboys.

any at the theater, and when we are overreach the mark in trying to think sparingly. Draw your own conclusions.—

shown dashing down a bluff on of situations of hairbreadth escapes Dan sayles. horseback to hear some one invariably remark: "Oh, they can't fool me-that isn't Mary Pickford, at all! It's probably a boy dressed up with a wig on."

commended a little bit for having the courage to fly so high, especially after the long, unhappy list of accidents which cast their shadows upon aeroplaning in southern California.

The next morning, pouring over the newspapers, Jack, Lottie and I heard a dozen or so saying: "Mary Pick-ford up in an aeroplane! Humph! You can't tell me that-press stuff, of course.

So many dreadful accidents have happened to girls and boys who are so carried away with the idea of ap pearing brave in the eyes of their fellow workers that they dared too much.

Unhappily I was out on a location when one of the Indians, to show us several tricks with a new bucking broncho, took some harrowing chances. He was thrown, and in landing struck a jagged rock.

In many of the pictures where they have used wild animals, girls have forgotten to be overly cautious and have been severely injured by an unfriendly lion or a treacherous leopard. Outside of Mr. Bruin, of whom I wrote once, I do not think I will ever be a feminine Daniel-in-the-lions'-den, as it would be fool-hardy instead of brave for me to take these chances when I think of the grief it would bring to my mother if I should be injured.

Edith G .- Why don't you give up your desire to become a moving picture actress and study music, if vot feel you have talent in that direction So many girls have been disappointed when they see themselves on the when they see themselves on the screen because their beautiful color-moments of suspense.

Henrietta D.—John Mason is playing in pictures, as well as on the stage, with Jane Cowl in "Common which will give the audience a few

Answers to Correspondents.

Josephine B .- Do not be discouraged because you have not been given a chance in pictures. Some girls are months waiting for an opportunity to show what they can do. Bend every effort to making good when your turn comes.

"Anxious."-"The Board of Public Censors" is a committee to pass upon pictures, seeing that there is nothing objectionable in them to offend the morals of any community.

T. P. D.-Edmund Breese, whom "skeered" and I have climbed up "Skating on thin ice is so much fun is at present playing in "The Fear tried to act like Buffalo Bill at the illness—if not death?

So when people write to me and ask me if we are not brave, I always reply in the affirmative, always reply in the affirmative, always reply in the affirmative, always reply though I do add that sometimes we spassmodically and incorrectly or too

Children Cry for Fletcher's

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his perhat H. Hutcher Sonal supervision since its infancy.
Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children-Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic, all Teething Troubles and Diarrhea. It regulates the Stomach and Bowels, assimilates the Food, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea-The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

In Use For Over 30 Years The Kind You Have Always Bought 50c WIZARD DUST MOP FREE

a 50-cent Bottle of the Fine Wizard

The sanitary way to dust the dust is absorbed and does not scatter.

The Wizard Dust Mop is the size of the regular dust brush, but made of cotton cord saturated with the Wizard Polish-not sticky, dust-catching oil. Will last for year. Be sure to get one Free now with a 50cent bottle of Wizard Polish.

1215 F St. and 1214-18 G St

AMUSEMENTS.

BELASCO -- TONIGHT, 8:200
MATINEE TOMORROW, 25c to 81.00.
OLIVER MOROSCO PROFFEIS
THE MORE OF Play of the Centrury.

THE BIRD OF PARADISE

NEXT WEEK-MASK AND WIG 4 DAYS, BEGINNING WED., MAY 16.
A. H. Woods presents a New Parce Council, i Three Acts, by Lawrence Risking, for Lovens of Laughs, Lingerie, and the Light.

"HIS BRIDAL NIGHT"

THIRD BIG WEEK

(No Telephone Orders) D. W. Griffith's Masterples

PRICES: Mats., 25c, 60c, 75c, 81 Eves., 25c, 50c, $1, $1.50, $2

ADELAIDE & HUGHES "HOLIDAY'S DREAM." Pat Rooney and Marion Bent, Herry Cooper, Jim and Berty Morgan, Allan Dinehart & Co., Marion Weeks, Kartelli, Etc.

50 "Rolling Stones" With A. H. VAN BUREN 75

Paint and Powder Club TODAY "DEAR DOROTHY." Tickets, M. Sl. 80, Sl. 50e

LOEW'S COLUMBIA Centinuous, 10:30 A. M. to 11 P. M. Morn.-Aft., 10c, 15c, Nights, 10c, 15c, 25c NOW PLAYING Dustin Farnum

In "DAVID GARRICK" Thursday, Friday, Saturday, VALENTINE GRANT In "THE INNOCENT LIE" Pipe Organ—Symphony Orda

YCCUM Burloscuo At the Best MYSTERIOUS POLLY Extra Attraction All This West

BURLESQUE. CASINO F Street

Now Playing-11 a. m., 1, 3, 6, 7, 8 p. m

PAVLOWA

"The Dumb Girl of Portici" By Special Arrangement With Max The Russian Celebrity and her Salled Russe in Great 120,600 Motion Picture Masterpiers, A remarkable fluorestion of an advancement Cas motion picture field.

Partiers in head and stocklers above the cettin Rovie Stat.—New York Evening Mail.

Matinecs, 15c; Evenings, 15c and 25c Box Seats, 50c. AUGMENTED ORCHESTEA. BASEBALL -- "TODAY

WASHINGTON

BOSTON